

MCWSS Course

Combat Camera Camp Johnson, NC

U.S. Marine Corps Instructors from Marine Corps Water Survival School (MCWSS), Marine Corps Combat Service Support Schools, record the times of U.S. Marines performing the pre-screening examination at the base pool, Camp Johnson, N.C., Jan. 9, 2012. The MCWSS course consists of fifteen training days to teach and examine U.S. Marines to become Marine Corps Swim Instructors. (U.S. Marine Corps photo by Lance Cpl. Holly A. Williams/released)

